

Awards Policy

Brunswick Awards

The Committee will democratically nominate and award Brunswick Lacrosse annual club awards through the following procedure:

At the August Committee meeting members will individually nominate a member for each of the club awards:

Best Club Person - Awarded to any person who has contributed to the Brunswick Lacrosse in a voluntary capacity to support and extend the function of the club.

Maverick Spirit – Awarded to any current registered player who shows a commitment to an aspect of the running of the club beyond a playing capacity.

Life Membership- Awarded to a current or past member who has had a continuous membership of Brunswick Lacrosse and who's work or involvement has significantly progressed Brunswick Lacrosse.

Votes for each award will be tallied.

Nominated member will be endorsed by the committee.

Recipients' of each award will be acknowledged at Junior and Senior presentations for their contribution to the club.

Coach's Awards - award by the team coach. For the player who is at training most weeks and is a team player and brings others into the game. Listens to the coach and follows direction.

Most Improved - The player who has shown the most growth this season.

Lacrosse Victoria Awards

Any member may nominate another member of Brunswick Lacrosse for Lacrosse Victoria Awards. (check LV's website for available awards)

The nomination should be forward to the Brunswick Lacrosse Committee.

The committee will decide and vote individually if the nomination is appropriate to be forward to Lacrosse Victoria.

If the nomination is endorsed by the committee it will be formally forwarded to Lacrosse Victoria by the president.
